

Assessment — Friend or Foe?

What happens when accountability is removed?

No accountability vs. high-pressured national exams

Teachers must know the lesson.

Teachers must know the objective.

Assessment occurs throughout and at the end of every lesson.

Great teachers reflect.

Can all assessment be oral or informal?

Students need independent practice with prompt feedback.

Test results document for others what the teacher already knows.

Assessment should build community.

Assessment should cultivate grace.

Assessment should help us to grow in Christ's likeness.
